

Job Description

Technician/Coatings Inspector

Summary

KLM Engineering, Inc. is currently seeking applications for Water Tower Technicians/Coating Inspectors. This is a regular part-time, seasonal position that typically runs from the end of March into November, weather dependent. Projects may be located throughout the Midwest. Training, personal protective, and inspection equipment for this position is provided at no cost to the employee. Reports to the Project Supervisor and Vice President/COO.

Essential Duties and Responsibilities

- Able to climb fixed ladder up to 150-feet
- Perform initial structural integrity and protective coating evaluation
- Monitors time and expenses on projects
- Responsible for inspecting, accepting and/or rejecting work performed as detailed by specifications or applicable codes
- Prepare daily and weekly inspection reports on conditions, progress, weather, and acceptability of work
- Perform on site project management during construction and rehabilitation of tank(s)
- Act as liaison between the Owner, Engineer, and Contractor
- Travel to multiple job sites if needed
- Other misc. duties as assigned.

Job Requirements

- High School Diploma
- Must have and maintain a valid drivers license
- Personal auto insurance
- General knowledge of construction projects, practices, and specifications
- Ability to take quality pictures

Skills and Qualifications

- Basic knowledge of Microsoft programs
 - o (Word, Excel, and Outlook)
- Well-organized
- Excellent communication skills
- NACE affiliation, coating application, and welding background

Benefits

- Health, Dental, and Life Insurance
- Retirement Plan Options
- Per diems and mileage included